

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 7, 2011

For More Information

Ernest Sanchez

(415) 364-3190

San Francisco Bay Ferry to Provide Service from East Bay to 2011 Cal Football Games at AT&T Park

SAN FRANCISCO -- The San Francisco Bay Ferry will provide direct ferry service from the East Bay to all five 2011 season Cal Bear football games at AT&T Park in San Francisco. The first game is Saturday, September 17 at 2:30 PM vs Presbyterian. Other season match-ups at AT&T Park include USC, Utah, Washington State and Oregon State.

Departing from Oakland's Jack London Square and Alameda's Main Street Terminal, the 30-45 minute ferry ride delivers riders to the dock at the steps of AT&T Park; return ferries depart 30 minutes after the conclusion of the game.

Riders can use the ferry's new online advance ticketing reservation system to reserve their seat on game day ferries and receive priority boarding. Available only for ferry service between Oakland and Alameda and AT&T Park, reservations for Cal game service can be purchased online at the ferry web site until 5:00 PM on the day prior to the game.

One-way fares for Cal game service are: Adults $7.50; Juniors (5-12 yrs.) $4.75; Seniors (65+ yrs.)/Disabled Person $5.25; Active Military Personnel (with ID) $6.25. Children under five travel free. While riders are strongly encouraged to reserve tickets in advance, though tickets will be available for purchase on board at time of departure. Free parking with validation is available at both East Bay docks.

For complete information on game dates, times and service schedules; online ticket reservations; dock locations, parking and more, visit www.eastbayferry.com.

###